

Goods in Transit Liability Cover UK Shipments

All consignments that travel through the Courier network automatically apply Standard Liability Cover, but upon request can be enhanced to Increased Liability Cover.

Exclusions apply and some goods travel at own risk*.

Standard Liability Cover

Standard conditions limit liability to a maximum cover per consignment to:

- Parcel consignment - £100 For Next Day Services
- Parcel consignment - £20 For Standard/Economy Services
- Mail Pack and Courier Pack services - £20

Exclusions apply and some goods travel at own risk*. *Refer to Prohibited Goods List.

Increased Liability Cover (ILC)

Increased Liability Cover is available up to a maximum of £2,500 per consignment for computers, laptops, computer equipment, peripherals, items containing computerised technology, software, mobile telephones and accessories, or other audio - visual equipment.

How do I purchase Increased Liability Cover?

Increased Liability Cover can be purchased at the time of raising the shipping label. You must declare the total value of the consignment at the time of sending the goods and you will be charged according to that value. The declared value must reflect the actual value of the goods being transported, taking into account the age and condition of the goods.
